MOAB COLLECTION

Born from the experience of crossing the desert.
A landscape where time is not urgency, but permanence.

Inspired by Moab, Utah, this collection translates the silent strength of rock formations shaped over millions of years. It is composed of three pendants with distinct forms that converse beautifully as a group.

Form, proportion, and composition exist in perfect cohesion. Pieces as strong as the rocks themselves and as independent as their creation.
The light reveals each design with precision, highlighting volume, shadow, and depth. It is balance in its most essential state.

GARDEN I & GARDEN II

"Nature is known to have a positive influence on people's health and feelings of happiness. Since we spend so much of our lives indoors, whether at home or at work, it's critical that we can establish emotional bonds with the environment that we live in. The design thought for well-being, combined with natural elements, collaborates to help motivate the human being, to reduce stress-related diseases, in addition to contributing to high performance and productivity", he explains.
